

Welcome to the GDR Neutrino 2015 @ Clermont-Ferrand LPC, 9 - 10 June

Miscellaneous information

Registration: held at the ground floor entrance of Amphi Recherche, on Tuesday June 9th, from 13h00 onwards.

Wifi connection: participants will be given a personal wifi access code upon registration to access “auversup-sans-fil” (check inside your badge holder). “Eduroam” is also available for those with a working account.

Coffee breaks: held at the 1st floor, across the entrance of the Amphi Recherche (room 9107).

Lunch (10th June): is free of charge and organised at the University restaurant “Le Saxo”. Those who have registered to join should present the “lunch ticket” with their name (found inside the badge holder). *Beverages are not included*

Getting to the LPC: from Clermont the easiest is by tramway - Line A, direction “La Pardieu Gare”, and alight at the “Cézeaux Pellez” stop. At rush hour, trams run every 5-8 minutes. Tickets can be purchased at vending machines, or directly from the driver (1.40€). From the centre of Clermont (e.g. Place de Jaude), it takes about 20 minutes to reach the campus. For more information, check the T2C site and/or the LPC page (arriving by car, etc.).

Where to eat (dinner): there are a number of affordable restaurants in the centre of Clermont; the streets around Place de Jaude, Marché St Pierre, and the Cathedral offer many choices (especially Rue des Chaussetiers and Rue des Gras). Below we propose a few.

Some restaurants close to the centre of Clermont:

1. “Le 1513” - crêperie dans un bâtiment classé monument historique
