

Welcome to the
Workshop on multibody charmless
B-hadron decays

The laboratory

- Laboratoire de Physique Nucléaire et de Hautes Energies
- CNRS (IN2P3), Sorbonne Université (Previously Université Pierre et Marie Curie), Université Paris Diderot Sorbonne Paris Cité.
- 100 researchers and faculty ( $\sim 50$  permanent),  $\sim 50$  technicians and engineers
- Mainly experimental physics:
  - Accelerators: ATLAS, LHCb, T2K, NA61
  - Astroparticles and Dark Matter: HESS, Auger, Xenon
  - Observational cosmology (LSST, SN, DESY)
  - Studies, R&D for numerous future projects: SLHC, LHCb-upgrade, ILD/Calice, CTA, EUCLID, DAMIC, Darkside, SHIP.
- Also some theoretical activities:
  - QCD phenomenology,  $g-2$ , cosmology

Orientation

Orientation in the LPNHE

- All the sessions will be held here, in room 12-22.SB/RC.08
- We are located in the SB/RC level.
- The LPNHE is located in corridors 12-13 and 12-22, in SB/RC level, 1st floor and 2nd floor
- In case you need to find a specific room in LPNHE

12-22.234
Corridor ↑ Room number
Level

- Corridors of the lab have free access during the meeting hours. A key is necessary earlier in the morning and later in the evening.

Practical information

- You may contact us (Mat, myself) if you need any help
- Network: you can use either LPNHE-Guest using the usernames and passwords supplied, or (better!) eduroam.
- Coffee breaks will be served in the cafeteria at the first floor of 12-22
- Tomorrow at 2pm we'll the LHCb Chamless B Decays Working Group was invited to join the session via Vidyo
- Rooms for discussions and work:
  - Room 12-22.234 (may also be used for luggage storage) – please contact us
  - The library, room 12-22.103, just in front of the cafeteria (at all times)
  - The cafeteria itself (vending machines and drinking water are available at all times).
- Toilets: outside the seminar room, in towers 12 and 22 and in the towers in general
- In case of trouble, call
  - Mobile phones of Mat Charles or EB (on the white board)
  - Magali Carlosse, LPNHE secreteriat: +33 (0)1 44 27 41 80

Lunch and dinner

- Many possibilities for lunch or coffee all around the Jussieu campus, various prices. Many places near the main entrance and in “Rue Cardinal Lemoine”
- There is also “l’Ardoise” inside the campus, near tower 25 (7-10€ for self service)
- Please go in small groups as the most restaurants are small.

Workshop dinner

Today, 8pm

L’Escarmouche / Au bistrot de la Montagne

38-40 rue de la Montagne Sainte Genviève, 75005 – PARIS

For those who wish to go to the restaurant with the group, we will meet at 19:40 near tower 12 (Jussieu level)

How to get there

Enjoy your stay

Have a fruitful workshop
