

Strasbourg, France

July 1-5, 2024

European Summer School École d'Eté Franco-Allemande

Radiation Measurements and Radiochemistry in Environment and Decommissioning

<http://esc.u-strasbg.fr>

For Scientists and Students having completed 3 years of University

Organization :

Abdel-Mjid NOURREDDINE, Lu LIU, Monique DELL

Université de Strasbourg
Faculté Physique et Ingénierie
3-5 rue de l'Université
F-67084 Strasbourg Cedex
France

Contact :

phi-ess2024@unistra.fr

BRETON Vincent (France): Radioactivity, friend or foe of life on earth?

STEINEGGER Patrick Julian (Switzerland): From polonium to nihonium – radiochemical research at the Paul Scherrer Institute

WISS Thierry (Germany): Radiation damage studies: fuels and actinides compounds

SUZUKI Tomo (France): Chemical decontamination of metallic waste and measurement of radionuclides

MENAA Nabil (Switzerland): Characterization methodologies and management of radioactive waste at CERN

GECKEIS Horst (Germany): Research towards radioactive waste disposal at KIT-INE

QUINTO Francesca (Germany): Accelerator Mass spectrometry for radionuclide analysis

GENTES Sascha (Germany): Decommissioning of nuclear facilities

TOKONAMI Shinji (Japan): Radon isotopes (^{222}Rn & ^{220}Rn) in the environment

DOUGNIAUX Grégoire (France): Radioactive aerosol metrology, pollutant transfer and measurement

DE VISMES Anne (France): Gamma-ray spectrometry for environmental radioactivity analysis

PORETI Cristina (Switzerland): Radiological emergency: how the radiological situation is determined, with a focus on aeroradiometric measurements in Switzerland

GALL Benoit (France): Dismantling of Strasbourg research nuclear reactor

DEL NERO Mirella (France): Radionuclide speciation and transfers in the environment: recent research in radiochemistry and new perspectives from multidisciplinary approaches

CHEN Jing (Canada): Report of the United Nations Scientific Committee on the Effects of Atomic Radiation

