

Constraints to nuclear parton densities in an LHeC

mardi 23 février 2010 14:15 (50 minutes)

The possibilities to constrain nuclear parton densities through the eA option of the proposed LHeC at CERN will be presented and discussed. Emphasis will be presented in quantitative constrains to DGLAP global analysis, and in the problems due to our limited knowledge of the longitudinal structure function in the nuclear case.

Auteur principal: Dr ARMESTO, Nestor (Universidade de Santiago de Compostela)

Orateur: Dr ARMESTO, Nestor (Universidade de Santiago de Compostela)

Classification de Session: LHC and future facilities