

Top2024 in France ?

- International workshop on top physics

- Every year, the reference conference for top physics, gather ~ 130 participants
- All aspects related to top: theory, experimental, BSM searches, ttH ...
- "It brings together experimentalists and theorists to present and discuss the latest developments in top-quark physics. This year's programme includes a mini-workshop on the connection between top and flavour physics.
- Young scientists are especially encouraged to participate, and there will be a poster session as well as a block of short plenary talks in the "Young Scientist Forum", allowing them to present their work."
