First Circular

This is the first announcement of the sixth edition of the European Nuclear Physics Conference. EuNPC 2025 is organized by the Nuclear Physics Division of the European Physical Society, and jointly by GANIL-SPIRAL2, LPC Caen, IJCLab Orsay and IRFU Saclay. The conference will take place from September 22nd to 26th 2025, and will be held in the city centre of Caen, at the MoHo (<https://www.moho.co/moho-hq/>), France.

In the spirit of the Bochum 2009, Bucharest 2012, Groningen 2015, Bologna 2018 and Santiago de Compostela 2022 European Nuclear Physics conferences, EuNPC 2025 aims to review and discuss the status and prospects in the field of nuclear physics and its applications. The conference will be a showcase for forefront theoretical and experimental developments, where the interplay between outstanding research and innovative concepts in the field will be promoted.

This edition will consist of invited plenary talks given by outstanding researchers and parallel sessions in which we will favour the participation of talented young researchers with oral and poster contributions selected based on their quality, importance, and impact in the field of Nuclear Physics. In addition, some time slots will be dedicated to special talks given by researchers awarded with the last edition of Nuclear Physics Division NPD prizes.

The scientific program covers the following fields:

- Accelerators and Instrumentation
- Nuclear Structure, Spectroscopy and Dynamics
- Nuclear Astrophysics
- Astroparticle Physics and Synergies with Nuclear Physics
- Heavy Ion Collisions and QCD Phases
- Hadron Structure, Spectroscopy and Dynamics
- Fundamental Symmetries and Interactions
- Nuclear Physics Applications
- Few-Body Systems
- Open Science and Data in Nuclear Physics
- Nuclear Science - People and Society
