

FJPPN = “TYL Network”

Emi Kou

Marc Besancon

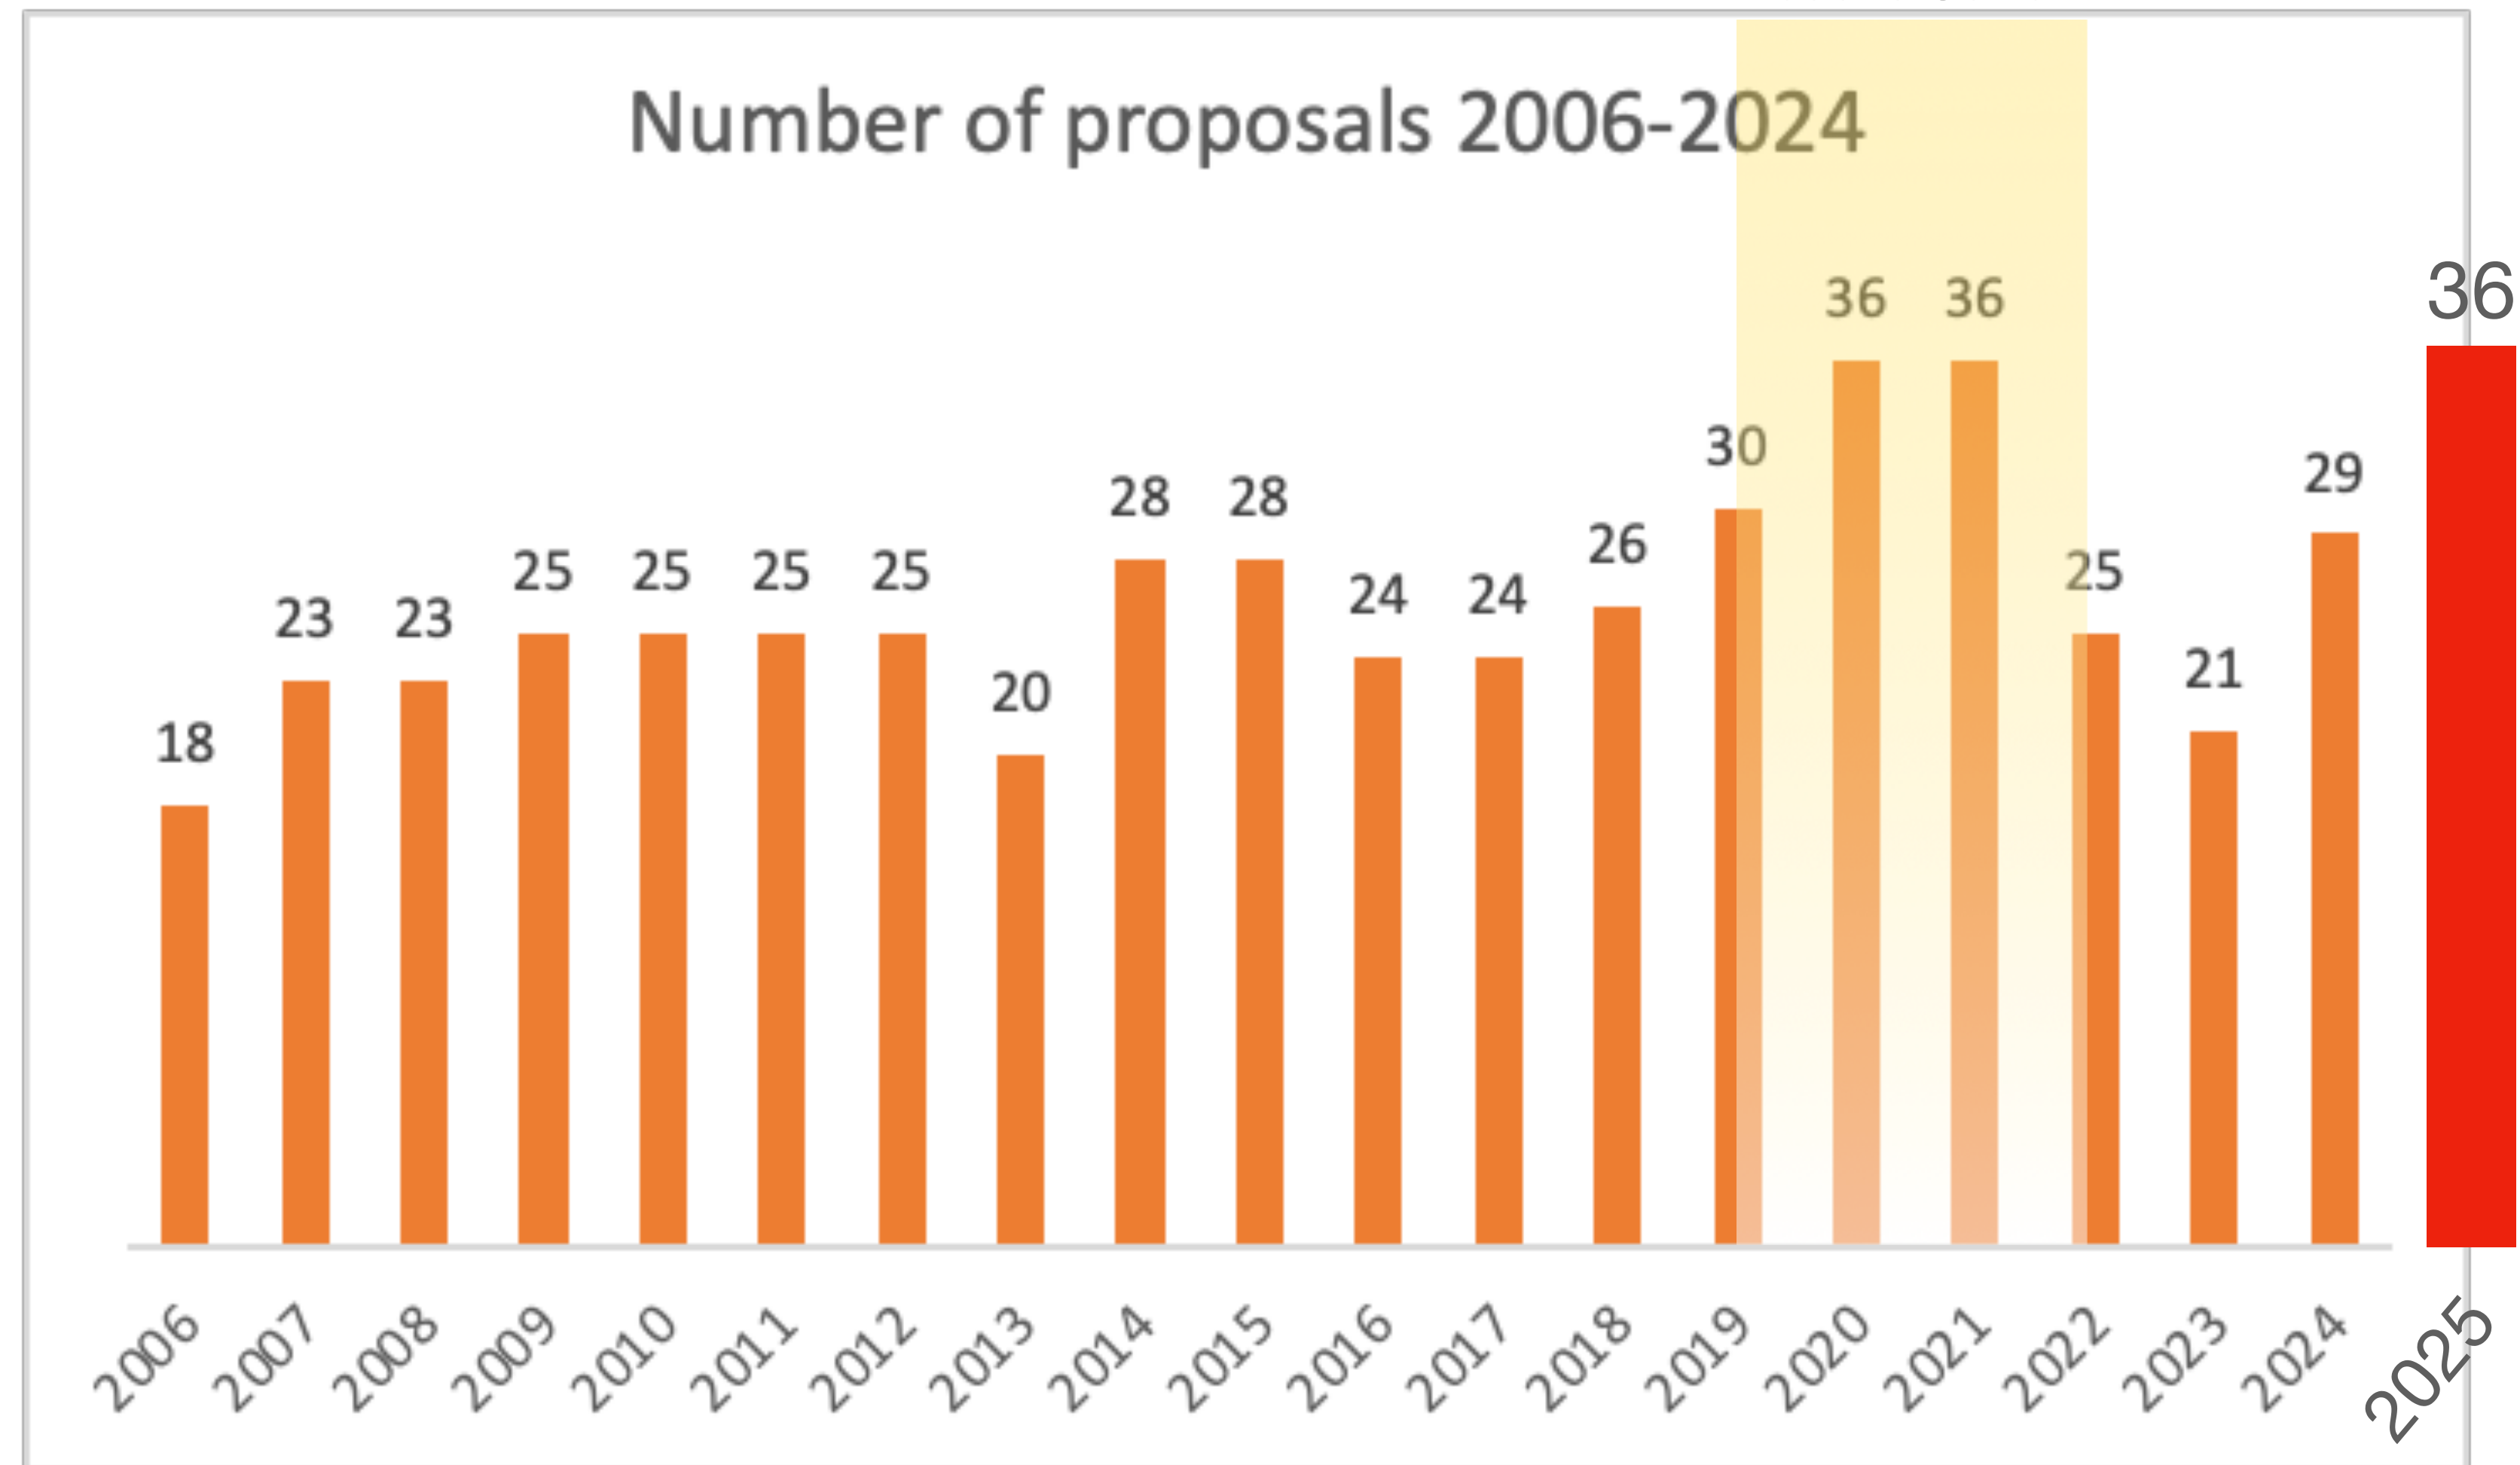

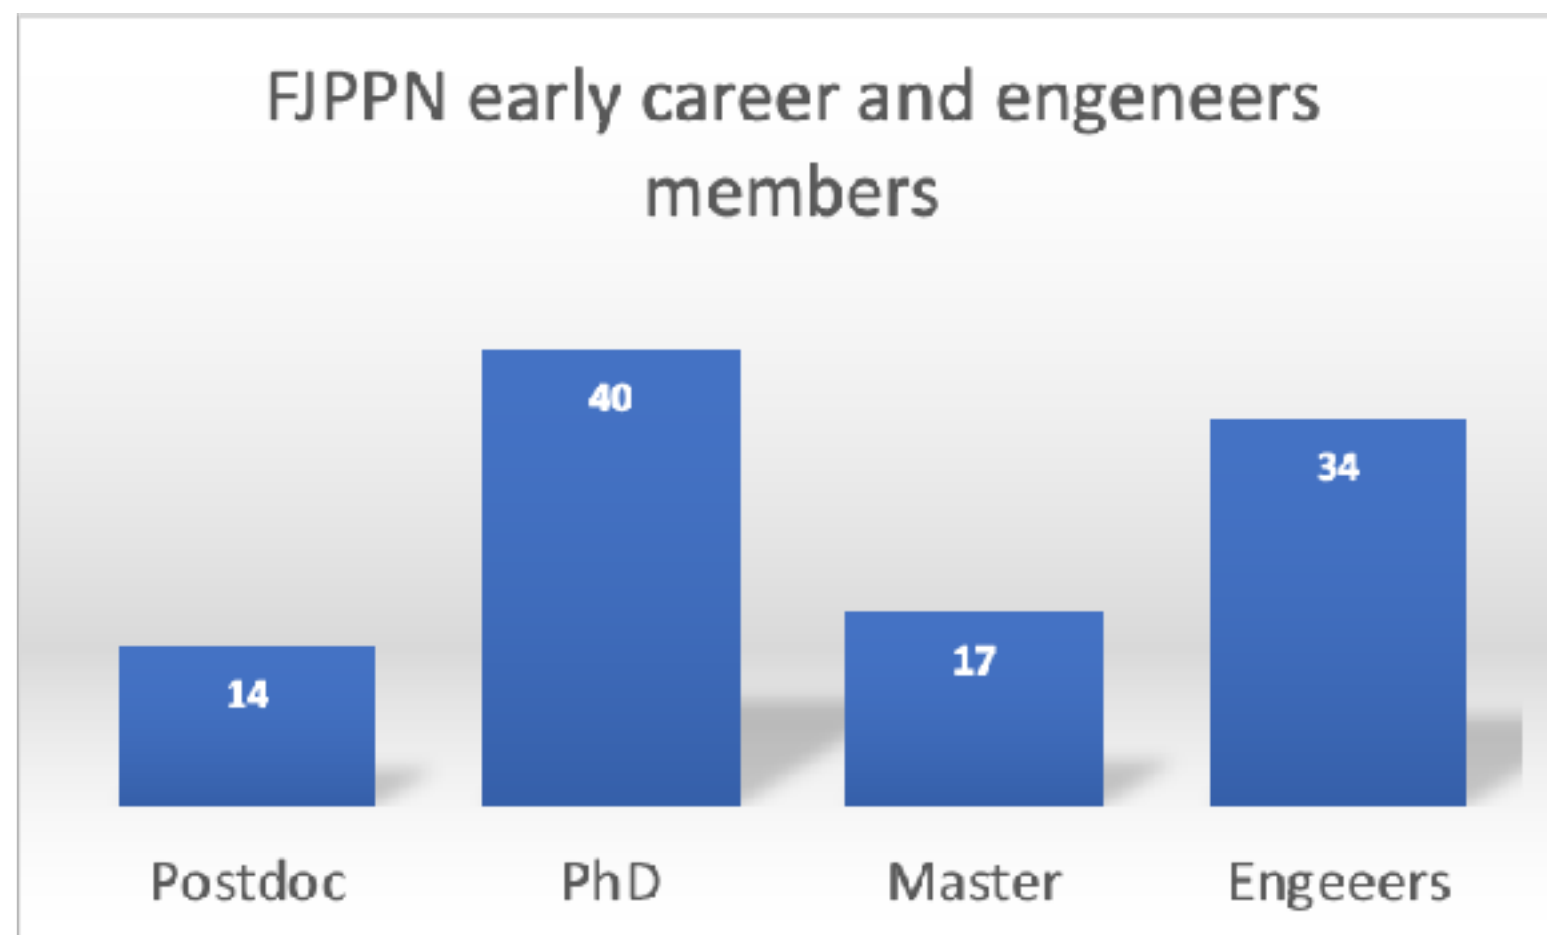

Shoji Hashimoto

FJPPN projects

In 2025, 36 projects are proposed, including 7 brand-new

Travel restriction period
due to Covid

380 participants (2024), among which
71 early career researchers, 34 engineers

Given the funding situation, we will not be able to always meet your requests...

But, please aware that there is also a chance to apply for student secondment, sending students to/from France/Japan (please check the webpage).

Student secondment (2024):

One from Japan

One from France

Other activities

Rikejo Camp: Nation-wide physics school for high school female students

Cristina Carloganu (2025)

Other activities

Toshiko Yuasa Award: Prize for Japanese female physicist (partner: Ochanomizu University)

Yuki Kawaguchi (gold)

Yuko Urakawa (silver)

Other activities

TYL Young Investigator award: The prize winners are awarded two weeks stay in French IN2P3 laboratories

Shivam Joshi

Coming soon: new webpage

New logo and webpage are ready for the next call.

Security is tightened and the application procedure (and taking statistics) will become more automatic!

2026 : Joint FJPPN/FKPPN workshop in Japan

= the 20th anniversary of FJ!

Premières discussions IN2P3-KEK

Signature de l'extension 2018-2022 à Nara, mai 2018

Signature de l'extension 2014-2018 @Bordeaux

Signature de la creation de TYL 2023 @ Tokyo

A little bit of FJPPL(N) History

2006	2010	2014	2018	2023	2024
Creation of FJPPL	1st extension	2nd extension	3rd extension	Creation of TYL	Creation of FJPPN
 J 2006-2011 F. Takasaki	 F 2006-2015 D. Perret-Gallix	 F 2015-2018 P. Bambade	 J 2011-2019 J. Haba	 F 2018-2023 I. Rizzo-Baudot	 J 2019-now S. Hashimoto	 F 2023-now E. Kou	 F 2015-now M. Besancon

Planning a special edition of our joint workshop. Dates and venue are still to be decided. But, we'll be delighted to welcome you!

Many thanks to Guillaume
Batigne and Tanja Pierret, for this fantastic workshop!

