

ID de Contribution: 14

Type: Non spécifié

First neutrino events in the OPERA emulsion target

mercredi 5 mars 2008 20:00 (15 minutes)

OPERA is a long baseline neutrino oscillation experiment employing nuclear emulsions for the direct observation of tau neutrinos in the CERN to Gran Sasso CNGS muon neutrino beam. I will report on status and prospects of the experiment, which observed its first neutrino events in the lead emulsion target in summer 2007.

Author: Dr PISTILLO, Ciro (University of Bern)

Orateur: Dr PISTILLO, Ciro (University of Bern)

Classification de Session: K physics, CP , neutrinos