

ID de Contribution: 102

Type: Plenary talk

Status of extensive air shower studies at Auger

The current status of the Pierre Auger Observatory will be described and the main results gathered so far about arrival directions, energy spectrum and composition will be presented, including the current limit on the high-energy neutrino flux. Implications for the future development of high-energy cosmic ray astrophysics will also be discussed.

Auteur principal: Prof. PARIZOT, Etienne (APC - University Paris 7)

Orateur: Prof. PARIZOT, Etienne (APC - University Paris 7)

Classification de thématique: Plenary Session